NEW HAVEN Jan 18. Yate is also ways glad to accept a challenge sent by Oxford and Cambridge for an athletic competition outdoors, but the latter's propostion for a boxing carnival to be held in London between picked men of the English universities and Harvard and Yale during the coronation ceremonies is out of the question. The opinion at Yale is that there is very little probability of Yale sending a team of boxers with Harvard to meet the Englishmen. There is individual interest taken in boxing at Yale, but not a college interest. The highest other bid was £217,000. The highest other bid was £217,000. The widow said in her application for the order to have the sale set aside that she know the track could be soid for £80,000 and possibly £60,000. She declared that Senator McCarren and Nathan Straus had both recently offered more for the track at private sale than Farrell agreed to pay for it under the hammer.
